FLASH MOB HIT THE STREETS OF NEWCASTLE

Last Thursday the sports group 'Flash Mob Dance' were given the opportunity to perform their routines in the streets of Newcastle. Thanks to the generosity of 'Newcastle Now' which now incorporates 'Live Sites' (who subsidised the group last year) students were able to travel by bus to perform in four venues in the City.

Their first performance was at Wheeler Place just outside the Civic Theatre in Hunter Street. This was followed by performances outside the 'One Penny Black' Cafe in the Hunter Street Mall (who were giving away free coffee all day, much to the students' delight).

The group then moved to the corner of King and National Park Street and finally to the Theatre Lane Corner at the main bus pick up area in Hunter Street outside the old David Jones store.

The group's repertoire this year was one of well rehearsed variety and fun with their first dance based on a 'Bollywood' theme, followed by Katy Perry's 'Firework' and finishing up with MC Hammer's 'U Cant Touch This'.

The organisers came to 'check out' the dancers and were very complimentary as were members of the general public. There was talk of another performance next year which is very exciting.

We are very lucky to have such an enthusiastic and talented group of students to represent Dungog High School. This excursion was a delight for both students and teachers involved.

Well done to all.
